Dear Mr. Eames:

This letter is in response to your US General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (number GSA 2015-000058), dated October 14, 2014, requesting the following categories of records:

- (1) Determinations made by the former Administrator of the GSA, Martha Johnson, to deny the public physical attendance during the entire time of each and every meeting of the President's Management Advisory Board (PMAB) during her administration of the GSA from February 26, 2010 until April 2, 2012;
- (2) Determinations made by the current Administrator of the GSA, Daniel Tangherlini, to deny the public physical attendance during the entire time of each and every meeting of the PMAB during his administration of the GSA from April 2, 2012 until present; and
- (3) Identities and titles of each and every employee of the Federal government who was present at any time during the thirteen (13) meetings of the PMAB which have been conducted during the administrations of Johnson and Tangherlini.

With respect to categories (1) and (2), GSA has no records responsive to this request. Since the agency does not have any records within the scope of your request, this does not constitute a denial of records. You have a right to appeal the adequacy of GSA's search. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H1C)
1800 F Street, NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

1800 F. Street, NW
Washington, DC 20405
Telephone: (202) 501-0800
Fax: (202) 501-2727

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reason(s) why you believe GSA should have the requested information. Please enclose copies of your initial request and a copy of this letter. Both the appeal letter and the envelope should be marked prominently "Freedom of Information Act Appeal".

With respect to category (3), all PMAB meetings during the stated time frames were open to the public via teleconference or live video over the internet, satisfying the FACA requirements for public meetings. The transcript of each meeting, available at www.whitehouse.gov, lists all participants in the meeting.

This completes our action on this FOIA request. Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact this office at our Toll Free Number 1-855-675-FOIA or by email at gsa.foia@gsa.gov.
